Lost or Found

The Northwest Building's Security Department has lost and found storage that is available to employees 24 hours a day, seven days a week. If you lose something at the Northwest Building or find something that you believe is of value to someone, contact Security at x4-7894.

Stages for All Ages

The League of Washington Theatres, with lead sponsorship from The Post, is presenting the Sixth Annual "Stages for All Ages." The program is designed to introduce thousands of young people, 17 and under, to live, professional theatre in the Washington area. For select performances, more than 20 area theatres are offering a free ticket to a child 17 or under, with each adult ticket purchased. For detailed information on performances offered, to request a brochure or to check current availability of specific performances, call the Stages for All Ages hotline at x4-5885, or, go online to www.lowt.org/stages.

News For ShopTalk

Just a reminder to contact ShopTalk if you have an important event happening in your department. Call Lisa Connors at x4-6803. Prior notice would be appreciated!

Bloodmobile at Northwest Building

The Northwest Health Center will host the American Red

Cross Bloodmobile on Wednesday, March 3 from 8:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on the 9th floor. Blood supplies typically teeter at dangerously low levels this time of year. A bitter flu season and bad weather have also added to the usual winter time donation deterrents. Call the Health Center on x4-7192 to schedule an appointment. Your participation is appreciated!

Employee Discount to Wine & Food Festival

The Post is the presenting sponsor of the upcoming Washington D.C. International Wine & Food Festival and discounts are available to employees. You can save $16 off the regular one-day admission ($55 instead of $71) or $16 off the regular two-day admission ($76 instead of $92). The Festival takes place February 28 & 29 at the Washington Convention Center. To order your tickets at the employee discount visit <http://www.wine-expos.com/dc/wpe/>.

Newsroom Staff Honored

MICHAEL ROBINSON-CHAVEZ received the photographer of the year award for his body of work which included this photo of Jason Woodburn, 12, practicing with his BB gun on one of the family's pastures in central Montana. Jason's brother Justin plays on the local high school football team, but Jason aspires to be a championship bull rider someday.

The American Society of Newspaper Editors (ASNE) announced on Saturday, Feb. 21 that foreign correspondent ANTHONY SHADID was the recipient of the Jesse Laventhol Prize for Deadline News Reporting for his coverage of the war in Iraq. In an announcement that appeared in Sunday's A section, The Post reported that the ASNE's judges said that Shadid's stories from Iraq demonstrated "enormous descriptive range and great lyrical power. He did it all from the base of great reporting strength." AMY ARGETSINGER, Metro, was a finalist for ASNE's diversity writing award.
