Bikes Reminder

The Security Department announced that the employee bicycle racks have been moved to the Northwest garage, P-1 level. The garage can be accessed with a Post ID at the garage entrance door in the alley. Employees are reminded to lock bikes on the rack.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The racks are only available for daily bike storage. Rack space is not available for bike storage beyond 48 hours. If your bike has been stored in the rack area for more than 48 hours, please remove it. Bikes that have been identified as being in the rack long-term will be removed and discarded or given to charity. The deadline for removal of these bikes is Feb. 15.

There are also several bikes that were left on the rack located at the outdoor garage space. If you want to claim your bike before Feb. 15, please contact Henry Palma at x4-4335.

Security Brown Bag on Feb. 16

The Security Department will present the second in a series of Brown Bag seminars on Wednesday, Feb. 16 at noon in the first floor Sousa Room. The seminar, "Situational Awareness & Personal Safety," will deal with individual employee safety concerns. You can register by calling OD&T at x4-5425.

Stages For All Ages

The Post is the presenting sponsor for the Sixth Annual Stages For All Ages. A project of the League of Washington Theatres, Stages for All Ages introduces young people, 17 and under, to live, professional theatre in the Washington area. Tickets at many participating theatres are available now and the program continues into June.

For select performances, more than twenty area theatres will offer a free ticket to a child 17 or under, with each adult ticket purchased. Complete information on the participating theatres and performances can be found on the League of Washington Theatres Web site www.lowt.org or call (202) 334-5885.

Important Dates for Eastern 500 Mentors

A brown bag lunch for Eastern 500 mentors is scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 10, in the Northwest Building's second floor meeting room 7 from 12:15 - 1:15 p.m. Topics for discussion include status of the school, basketball challenge planning, mentoring tips, and free tickets to the Hoops for the Homeless event featuring Magic Johnson.

The Eastern 500 Club luncheon is Tuesday, Feb. 15, from noon to 1:30 p.m. in the Northwest Building's second floor auditorium. The Honorable Eleanor Holmes Norton, Congresswoman - District of Columbia, will be the featured speaker.

If you plan to attend either or both events, please R.S.V.P. to jonesdj@washpost.com.
